IMPORTANT REMINDERS

Locals tell people not to eat while walking

Official websites remind tourists to keep their passports safe.

Station signs remind passengers not to talk loudly on the train.

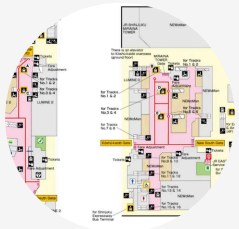

TOURIST PROBLEM & SOLUTION

Train Stations

Getting lost inside massive train stations like Shinjuku.

Follow overhead English signage or ask the station staff at the gate booth (Koban).

How do I order food?

Language barrier when ordering food at traditional local restaurants where menus are exclusively written in Japanese characters.

Use instant photo translation apps (like Google Translate), choose dishes from realistic plastic food models (sampuru) displayed in shop windows, or point to menu pictures and say "Kore o kudasai" ("This one, please").
